Revd. Sarah Louise Schofield

Curate

We are delighted to welcome Sarah-Louise this weekend to St. Margaret's. Sarah-Louise trained at St Mellitus Theological College, London and completed her ordinand training with St Luke's Church, Reigate. Married to Pete, they have three teenagers, two at St Bede's School and one at university. With a background in sports science and business, Sarah-Louise's past work has been in health promotion, teaching and lecturing working for Christians in Sport, All Nations College and Godstone Farm. As a family they have lived in Redhill and worshipped at HT for 18 years with family life revolving around sport, music, cooking and walking their dog, Evie.

On Monday 6 May, we will be walking together from Mugswell to Netherne, via Chipstead and Hooley. Please join us for all or part of the walk, as we journey through our parish with God.

If you would like to be involved, please email Josh (youth@smchipstead.org) to let us know if you are coming (as well as if any others are too), and whether it is for all or part of the walk or prayer.

Booking opens on 6th May. I loved writing this, loving directing it and will love to see you there. Libby X
